Women in Electronics Announces Newest Sponsor, Galco Industrial Electronics, Inc.

Orange County, CA – November 22, 2021 – Women in Electronics, a 501(c)(3) public charity, providing leadership growth and development, mentorship, networking, thought-leadership events, and resources that advance results in gender parity in the electronics industry, announced today its newest sponsor, Galco Industrial Electronics, Inc., a distributor of Industrial and Commercial Electrical and Electronic Control, Automation and Motion Products, Repair and Engineering Services.

“Women in Electronics is pleased to welcome Galco Industrial Electronics to the WE sponsorship family,” said Jackie Mattox, WE Founding Director, President & CEO. “Our partnership with Galco expands WE’s reach into the industrial space, furthering our ability to bring our quality thought leadership events, mentoring program, membership development and resources to more women and men in the Electronics Industry.”

“I am both honored and proud to partner with Women in Electronics,” said Allison Sabia, President and CEO of Galco Industrial Electronics. “In an industry dominated mostly by men, the mission of WE is something I personally believe in and partnering with them reinforces that women should not only be part of the conversation, but leading it.”

Women in Electronics offers gratitude to Sponsors: Amphenol, Arrow Electronics, Avnet/Newark, AVX (a Kyocera Company), Cornell Dubilier, Digi-Key, Flex Electronics, Galco Industrial Electronics, KEMET, Littelfuse, Octopart, Orbweaver, and TTI Family of Specialists.
